

Before appeal- $23,850
awarded in Financial aid

I am excited to learn of your admission to Washington University's Class of 2022! My colleagues and I look forward to helping you and your family plan for your education.

We are pleased to present your financial assistance award for the 2018-2019 academic year.

Financial Assistance Award

Washington University Scholarship	$15,850
Federal Work-Study / Campus Job	2,500
Federal Direct Loan, Subsidized (Stafford)	3,500
Federal Direct Loan, Unsubsidized (Stafford)	2,000
Total Financial Assistance Award	$23,850

Your financial assistance award contains a need-based Washington University Scholarship and other need-based component(s). Your award is based on your financial assistance application for the 2018-2019 school year and is a specific, formal commitment by Washington University. You will re-apply for aid each year and variables, such as changes in income or number of students in college, may impact future years' awards. To learn more about this award and how to finalize it, please refer to the Financial Assistance Award booklet.

Within the next few days, you will receive a letter from Lindsay Wilson, your Student Financial Services counselor, who will be happy to answer any questions you or your family may have.

We have provided an example of how your financial aid award impacts your cost of attendance. Use the enclosed Planning Worksheet to figure your estimated 2018-2019 costs.
